Local Services

West London Mental Health NHS Trust provides a full range of local mental health services to the London boroughs of Ealing, Hammersmith and Fulham, and Hounslow as well as specialist forensic mental health services, including high secure services to a much wider catchment area.

Head of Chaplaincy and Spiritual Care

Band 8a £40,177 - £49,703 inclusive of all relevant allowances

With 32 sites and over 4000 dedicated staff, The WLMHT provides high-quality mental health services ranging from community care in West London to specialist high secure forensic services at Broadmoor Hospital.

The Trust is looking for an experienced and pastorally gifted chaplain to be based at the St Bernard's Hospital site in Ealing, to be professionally responsible for the chaplaincy team and to take the lead role in developing and delivering a high-quality service meeting the spiritual and worship needs of all service users and staff.

With at least five years pastoral experience and evidence of working with other professionals in a mental healthcare setting, you should have degree level theological training or equivalent. Healthcare Chaplaincy training and an understanding of related institutional issues are also essential along with knowledge and ability to work in a multi-faith team.

As an excellent communicator, you should be confident and resilient when leading others and be capable of working alongside and inspiring staff of all disciplines in order to deliver the highest quality healthcare.

For an informal chat about the role please contact Revd Canon Trevor Walt on 01344 754720 or via email: trevor.walt@wlmht.nhs.uk

Please apply on line at www.wlmhtjobs.nhs.uk or alternatively to request a job pack for this position telephone our recruitment line 020 8354 8122, or by email HR-Admin@wlmht.co.uk quoting your name, address, and reference number 222-WL6515

Closing Date: 19 February 2007

Interview Date: w/c 6 March 2007 The Trust will apply for an enhanced CRB disclosure for the successful candidate prior to appointment. For more information visit www.disclosure.gov.uk

The Trust is committed to equal opportunities and where practicable facilitating flexible working arrangements. The Trust operates a No Smoking policy for all staff.

Assistant Chaplain

£12,276 - £13,245 p.a. inc. + free on-site accommodation

You will work with the current Chaplain in reaching out to members of the University community - a diverse group of students and staff. A faith perspective that is open and inclusive is therefore important.

A committed Roman Catholic, you will be a graduate in Theology and/or counselling, service-learning or similar fields with experience in leadership development preferably in chaplaincy or justice related areas. Music and liturgical skills will also be useful. Equally important are personal qualities such as being a self starter, having good communication and organisational skills, flexibility, and a willingness to work as part of a team.

For further information, please contact Human Resources on 020 8392 3644 (24 hour answerphone), email hr@roehampton.ac.uk or visit our website at www.roehampton.ac.uk/jobs.
