

'Transforming Lives'

The Cardinal Hume Centre offers a range of high quality advice, support and education services to homeless young people, badly housed families and other vulnerable groups. The charity has an income of around £2million from varied sources and aims to maintain the current healthy balance between statutory and voluntary income.

Director of Finance & Central Services

Central London

£42-£45,000

Our Director of Finance has recently moved to a new role and we are seeking a skilled and experienced Director of Finance & Central Services to join the Senior Management Team. Responsible for the Centre's financial resources you will work closely with the Chief Executive and also be accountable for other functions including IT, facilities and maintenance, front office and aspects of HR. You will act as the Company Secretary for the Centre and provide the necessary support to our Board of Trustees.

You will hold a recognised financial qualification and will have been responsible for the provision of management information, systems and accounts. You will have already operated strategically as part of a senior management team whilst at the same time maintaining strong operational skills.

If you have the relevant skills and experience for this post and you would like to make a difference to the lives of vulnerable and excluded people, please download an application pack from www.jmrc.co.uk/cardinalhume. To speak to one of our consultants, call Ann Gill on 01428 658928 or Jocelyn Ridley on 020 8896 0891. Closing date for applications is Friday 19th October.

NATIONAL DIRECTOR

£55K - £60K LONDON

Seafarers transport 95% of goods used in the UK, and one million visit British ports annually. They can be away from home for a year, and can experience loneliness, dangerous working conditions and spiritual deprivation. Apostleship of the Sea provides pastoral and practical assistance to all seafarers; last year over 200,000 seafarers were personally provided with this vital support through its ship-visiting, port drop-in centres and seagoing chaplaincy.

This is an exciting moment to join this re-launched and revitalised Catholic charity. Building on recent successes, you will lead it through its next phase of growth and development, raising the profile and enhancing support for seafarers.

An outstanding communicator, you will demonstrate ease in building relationships at all levels across the UK and internationally. Comfortable in a leadership role and visualising the big picture, you will be an experienced manager who can equally well operate at local level. We seek an individual with initiative, who combines a concern for the lives of seafarers and with an understanding of and empathy for the core values of the Catholic faith.

To apply, contact Rachael Bemrose on 020 7691 1920 or Rachael.Bemrose@prospect-us.co.uk quoting reference A2621-3-1/G. Closing date: 17/10/07. First interviews: w/c 29/10/07. Office visit: w/c 12/11/07. Final interviews: 19/11/07.
