

Make a real difference in a leading overseas aid agency

Do you want to work for one of the UK's leading relief and development agencies and help make a real difference in the lives of the world's poorest communities? The Direct Marketing Section is key to CAFOD's work, encouraging individuals in the Catholic community to share their wealth as a way of living their faith and raising over £11 million p.a.

Direct Marketing Manager (Donor Recruitment)

You will play a key role in developing CAFOD's donor recruitment strategy and plans at an exciting time of continued growth. You will help identify new ways of recruiting new supporters as well as take forward our successful alternative giving catalogue, World Gifts. You will also be responsible for motivating and managing a small team to achieve outstanding results.

With a passion for direct marketing, you will have a proven track record in fundraising or marketing. You will also be able to manage people and budgets and have excellent communication skills.

Please obtain an application pack by visiting www.cafod.org.uk/jobs/, emailing vacancies@cafod.org.uk or phoning 020 7095 5601, quoting ref DMM2. Closes 19 November 2007.

CAFOD is an equal opportunities employer.

The Whittington Hospital is a busy friendly teaching hospital, situated in North London. It is a short journey from the centre of London and is well supported by major bus routes, the underground and mainline rail.

Roman Catholic Chaplain

Band 6: Part-time: 0.7 wte

From £23,570 p.a. inc. pro rata plus allowances pro rata

You will provide pastoral and sacramental support to Roman Catholic patients, their carers and staff at The Whittington Hospital NHS Trust, and work as a fully integrated member of the Spiritual and Pastoral Care Team. This includes taking part in the on-call rota to meet the urgent pastoral needs of patients and their families; local parish clergy also assist in the provision of urgent sacramental ministry. You will be encouraged to develop your own interests and skills within the Chaplaincy Team's overall strategy.

A suitably qualified Roman Catholic priest, you should also be open to further learning and professional development. You must demonstrate good communication and interpersonal skills, possess spiritual and emotional maturity and be able to work both as a team member and on your own initiative. A good sense of humour is likely to be invaluable.

For further information or an informal discussion, please contact Revd Daphne Williams or Revd David Curtis, Co-Heads of Department on 020 7288 5337 or Father Peter Scott, Westminster Diocese Healthcare Chaplaincy Co-ordinator on 020 7349 5609.

CASTLERIGG MANOR

Catholic Youth Retreat Centre in the Lake District

Youth Tutor posts

Founded in 1969, Castlerigg Manor is the residential youth centre of the R.C. Diocese of Lancaster. It seeks to enable the growth and development of young people. At the heart of the Centre is the resident community who provide courses to the c.3000 young people who visit each year. Courses involve a range of activities including liturgy, prayer, discussion, workshops, Lake District walks and social activities.

We are looking for 2 practising Catholics, who would like to grow and develop their skills, for a limited time of at least 8 months, by learning to work alongside the team of Youth Tutors and volunteers in ministering to young people. Experience in working with young people would be an advantage and an appropriate level of education (usually degree level) is expected.

Successful applicants would join the resident team and receive a salary package of £13,500, consisting of a wage of £9,106 p.a., in addition to board, accommodation and other benefits.

Applications by application form, available online or by post, for start in January 2008.
