sfx ST FRANCIS XAVIER 6TH FORM COLLEGE

We are a highly successful Beacon College serving an inner city multi-ethnic community. At our last three inspections we only ever received the top grades 1 and 2. At Advanced level we are the highest performing College in Inner-London.

Vice Principal
For September 2008

Salary in the region of £70,000 plus benefits and reasonable relocation expenses

We are looking for a dynamic, ambitious Vice Principal to replace the current post holder who is retiring after 19 highly successful years. The selected candidate will be a practising and committed Catholic with outstanding leadership skills and significant experience in the school or college sector. The role includes the key responsibility for quality. We are looking for someone with:

- the ability to maintain and build on the college's achievements to ensure students continue to receive a high quality learning experience.
- the communication and personal skills necessary to develop positive relationships inside and outside the college.
- a track record of success in a management role and the ability to inspire students and staff.
- a strong commitment to equal opportunities and the values of a Catholic College.

The closing date for receipt of application forms is noon on 8 February 2008

St. Francis Xavier College offers excellent training and development opportunities and facilities. We have a state of the art gym, which is free to staff and an on-site nursery, all within a friendly and supportive community environment just two minutes walk from Clapham South underground station in South London.

In promoting equal opportunities we welcome applications from all sections of the community.
