Catholic Trust for England and Wales

Catholic Safeguarding Advisory Service Director

c. £60,000

based in Birmingham

The Catholic Church in England & Wales is considering the recommendations of the Cumberlege Commission report Safeguarding with Confidence (July 2007) including establishing new structures to take forward the work of safeguarding children and vulnerable adults building on the excellent work of the Catholic Office for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults (COPCA).

A new National Catholic Safeguarding Commission (NCSC) is being established responsible for setting national standards and for the continuing development of safeguarding policies within the Church. A new Catholic Safeguarding Advisory Service (CSAS), successor to COPCA, will also be established responsible for driving and supporting improvement in safeguarding practice.

We are looking for a Director of CSAS who will be:

- the professional head of service responsible for planning, directing and managing its work
- the expert professional adviser to the NCSC

To take on this challenging and rewarding opportunity successfully, you will:

- have senior level experience in safeguarding work with children and/or vulnerable adults in the statutory or voluntary sector
- have experience of managing staff and resources
- have a sound knowledge of current legislation, policy and practice in safeguarding
- have excellent communication skills and proven leadership qualities
- have a relevant professional qualification
- be sympathetic to and have an understanding of the Catholic Church and its culture

For an application pack please go to : http://www.catholic-ew.org.uk/jobs/jobs_home.htm or e-mail Aminata.kamara@cbcev.org.uk. Closing date is 12 noon Thursday 7th March 2008. Shortlisting will take place on 10 March 2008.

RC Diocese of Plymouth Department for Formation, Newman House

Religious Education Adviser for children and those who work with them

(circa) £34,000 plus essential car user allowance.
To start September 2008. Closing date: 18th March 2008.

This is a rare opportunity to work as part of a multi-disciplinary team supporting formation and lifelong learning in all aspects of diocesan ministry. We are looking for an exemplary classroom practitioner with the interpersonal skills to work with adults, predominantly in schools but also in parishes and other settings.

You will have a commitment to supporting growth in faith of children and young people and a sensitivity to the anxiety many adults feel when charged with this task. This is not an inspectorial role but one of accompaniment and support.

You will have the opportunity to contribute to a creative team who share a commitment to find new and better ways of supporting the work of our schools and parishes. The work requires energy, lots of travel around our beautiful Diocese and flexibility.

Working with LAs, DCSF, CES and Governing Bodies, the post provides an ideal opportunity also to develop your leadership skills and knowledge and to advance your career in school management or consultancy.

For an informal discussion about this post, to make arrangements to visit Newman House or for further details and an application form, please contact our Office Manager, Liz, on the number below or via email: johnm@plymouth-diocesan-office.org.uk

Principal

St Elizabeth's RC Special Residential School - Hertfordshire

Salary Group 4 L23-27 (incl. London Fringe) plus allowance for residential responsibilities of £12,255 per annum

St Elizabeth's is a non-maintained residential special school described by OfSTED (October 2007) as providing "an exceptional level of care for its pupils". The school has a long history of education and caring for students with epilepsy and other complex needs. In recent years this has been extended to supporting students with autistic spectrum disorders. It is part of St Elizabeth's Centre which includes a specialist residential college and an adult care home. The Principal will be a member of the senior management team and will contribute towards the strategic leadership of the Centre. The school wishes to appoint a Principal to provide strategic and visionary leadership and ensure that the school continues to build on its current strengths and successes. Currently catering for 60 pupils aged 9 to 19 (52 are boarders); they have a range of complex learning, medical, communication and sensory needs. The Principal will lead a multi-disciplinary academic, residential and medical team of over 200 staff in providing strategies and services that support the students holistically.

The Role:

- To provide outstanding leadership, vision setting and effective resource management for the school.
- To ensure the school delivers high quality teaching and learning opportunities with appropriate care and medical services to support our "24 hour curriculum".
- To promote the work of the school and to further develop the service through the framework of 'Every Child Matters' and a range of partnerships.

The Candidate:

- A practising Catholic who will make a good school even better.
- An inspirational and motivating leader who will engage with the pupils, staff and community to lead the way in raising educational and learning standards.
- A track record of working in the sector at a senior level and of supporting and encouraging children and young people to improve their life chances.

The above post is subject to an enhanced CRB check.
