St Helens and Knowsley Teaching Hospitals

NHS Trust

Head of Spiritual Care and Chaplaincy Services

Ref: 15993

Band 7 £29,091 - £38,352 – 37.5 hrs/wk

An exciting opportunity has arisen to appoint a high profile Head of Spiritual Care and Chaplaincy within this large acute Trust (916 beds), situated approximately 10 miles from Liverpool. The Department is part of the Nursing Directorate and the Chaplains are involved at a strategic level in the plans for our two new hospitals on both the St Helens and Whiston sites.

You will be enthusiastic, innovative and committed to the development of Spiritual Care and Chaplaincy Services to patients, relatives and staff throughout the organisation.

You will be able to be authorised by, and in good standing with, any of the major Christian denominations.

You will have:

- significant and in-depth experience in whole time ministry
- a commitment to team working in an ecumenical setting
- the ability to communicate in a variety of settings, to achieve cooperation and influence others
- a broad knowledge of professional and NHS issues
- good interpersonal and pastoral skills
- teaching and presentation skills

Please feel free to arrange an informal visit with Mrs Ann Wright, Personal Secretary/Administrator, Spiritual Care Dept. on 0151 430 1657.

Details of post and application form available online via the website www.jobs.nhs.uk

The successful applicant will require an enhanced disclosure from the criminal records bureau.

Closing date: Friday 29 August 2008.

Interview: Friday 12 September 2008.

We are an Equal Opportunities Employer and operate a No Smoking Policy. Crèche facilities available.
