ST JOSEPH'S PASTORAL CENTRE

working with people with learning difficulties

The organisation

St Joseph's assists people with learning disabilities in London and Hertfordshire to achieve their full potential and inclusion in society. We do this by means of courses and therapies, social advocacy, spiritual formation and the training of volunteers

We are an agency of the Archdiocese of Westminster, led by a Director and its Management Committee.

If you are interested, please send a statement of why you feel you would be suitable for this role. We will invite individuals to visit St Joseph's and meet the Chair and Director.

Closing date: 28 October 2008

Phone: Sue Pratt on 020 8202 3999
www.stjoseph.org.uk

The job:

Management Committee member

We seek 4 people to join the current team of 6. The committee acts as a "critical friend" and offers advice, evaluation and support. Members advocate for St Joseph's throughout the diocese and in the business environment. We are seeking in particular:

- people who have learning disabilities
- people who are parents or carers
- people working in professions or charities related to our field of work

The role is voluntary, with expenses paid.
