Anchor House is an award winning residential and lifeskills centre for the homeless in Canning Town, London E16. We have ambitious plans to transform our buildings and services. Not wishing to rest on our laurels a recent review has brought the need to recruit three dynamic, results-orientated and caring professionals to develop our programmes further.

Head of Personal Development - Up to £40,000

This is a new senior role leading our Personal Development team in all aspects of our work with our residents and service users. This postholder will be part of the executive management team. Experience in contract management and partnership development work is essential, as well as having significant experience and understanding of homeless and substance misuse issues.

Criminal Justice Coordinator - Up to £35,000

We are embarking on a new initiative involving direct action and linkages with potential residents who are in the criminal justice system. This postholder will need to have direct experience of the Criminal Justice system, an ability to cut through and develop a new paradigm.

Corporate and Trust Manager - Up to £35,000

Reporting to our Appeal Director we would want you to have a demonstrable track record of fundraising from grant making Trusts and Corporate Giving. Direct experience of raising significant funds is essential.

If you want to see what our customers think of us go to www.anchorhouseuk.org and watch their Home and Hope video.

For an application pack and further details please visit www.anchorhouseuk.org or email jasmine-sandison@anchorhouseuk.org

We will have an open day for prospective applicants on Saturday 28 November between 10am-3pm or by arrangement. Keith Fernet Director of Anchor House will be available to speak with interested candidates for the Head of Personal Development and Criminal Justice posts. Or contact our Appeal Director, Guy Insull for information about the Corporate and Trust manager post. For all enquiries and to confirm or arrange a visit, please call Anchor House on 020 7476 6062.

Closing date for all applications is 5pm on Wednesday 16 December 2009
