The Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) is seeking to recruit a Port Chaplain:
Southampton based, Sussex & Hants area – full time
Salary scale: £22-26K
dependent upon training, experience and qualifications.

95% of British imports arrive by sea, and, equally important, exports leaving are shipped in the same manner. The seafarers who work on the ships come predominantly from poorer countries, and typically work away from home on contracts of up to 12 months. They are an invisible workforce, a forgotten element in the globalisation debate suffering further in the current global recession. The task of AoS chaplains is to be alongside seafarers, to provide for their pastoral and spiritual well-being in a 'hands-on' practical expression of the Catholic Church's Mission. Fundamental to the post is ship visiting in the main ports and developing teams of volunteer ship visitors in other regional ports.

- AOS Port Chaplains are priests, nuns, permanent deacons and suitable individuals drawn from the laity to train as Lay Chaplains
- Experience in chaplaincy is desirable
- IT and admin skills required plus the ability to promote the work of AoS
- Excellent interpersonal skills and a strong Catholic faith are essential, and above all, a belief in the mission to perhaps the most marginalised industry sector in the world.

For an application pack or to arrange an informal chat with National Director, Capt. Paul Quinn, please contact Alice Robinson, on 0207 012 8601 or at alicerobinson@apostleshipofthesea.org.uk
 You can also visit the website at www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk
 Port visits with a current working Port Chaplain will be arranged for suitable candidates
 Closing date for Applications: 26 February 2010
 Interviews (will follow a port visit) soon after the application close date

I thank the Lord for the work of the Apostleship of the Sea, which for many years has offered human and spiritual support to those who live this difficult and challenging way of life.
