Co-ed Preparatory School (3-11) • Boys' Division (11-16)

• Girls' Division (11-16) • Co-ed Sixth Form (16-18)

The Avenue, Boreham, Chelmsford, CM3 3HS

New Hall School, the UK's largest Catholic boarding & day school, requires a Roman Catholic priest to serve the school as a full time or part time

Chaplain

from April or September 2016

Accommodation on campus and access to a car, if required • generous salary • excellent benefits & training provision • school holidays, pension scheme and meals during term time • superb working environment • London 30 mins by train

This is an exceptional opportunity to join a large and vibrant Chaplaincy Team, working alongside the Lay Chaplain and reporting to the Principal. We are seeking a skilled, compassionate Chaplain to serve and support the community of students, parents and staff, in particular the residential community of 260 boarders, aged 7-18. The Chaplain will celebrate a weekly Sunday evening Mass for boarders and weekday Masses for the wider school community, as required. Candidates must be Roman Catholic priests. The successful candidate will be well qualified, confident and articulate in discussing theological, moral and spiritual issues with young people and may contribute to RE/Theology teaching if desired. Excellent communication skills and the ability to devise and lead liturgies and prayer opportunities are essential.

Working hours will vary and will include weekdays, evenings and weekends during term time. This post may be residential or non-residential and there is an option of either a fixed term 2-year contract or a permanent position.

The school was assessed as 'Outstanding' in the 2013 diocesan Section 48 inspection and ISI inspections of 2014 & 2010. The school has a flourishing, successful Theology Department of 9 teachers, together with a strong Music Department and choral tradition.

New Hall is committed to safeguarding pupils. There will be an enhanced DBS check prior to appointment.

Lay Chaplain

from April or September 2016

Accommodation on campus and access to a car, if required • generous salary • excellent benefits & training provision • school holidays, pension scheme and meals during term time • superb working environment • London 30 mins by train

This is an exceptional opportunity to join a large and vibrant Chaplaincy Team in the largest Catholic independent school in the UK, working alongside the priest Chaplain and reporting to the Principal. We are seeking a skilled, compassionate Lay Chaplain to serve and support the community of Senior School boarding and day students, as well as parents and staff. Applications from lay people, deacons and Religious are welcome. The successful candidate will be well qualified, confident, articulate and sensitive in discussing theological, moral and spiritual issues with young people of different faiths and will contribute to RE/Theology teaching as appropriate, in particular the Sixth Form General RE programme. The Lay Chaplain will also support the work of the New Hall Voluntary Service (NHVS). Excellent communication skills and the ability to devise and lead liturgies and prayer opportunities are essential. This post may be residential or non-residential. Candidates will be practising Catholic and ideally will have experience of Chaplaincy work/youth ministry, preferably in a school context. However, applications are also welcome from new graduates and those making a career change; training will be provided as appropriate. Counselling experience or interest would be welcome.
