NEWS REPORTER

Six months' maternity cover

An opportunity has arisen for a full-time News Reporter to join the editorial team of The Tablet, the leading independent Catholic weekly and one of the world's oldest journals.

The Tablet is stepping up its digital presence, and seeks a journalist to create lively, accurate copy that will help it reach a wider UK and international readership.

The successful candidate will be a first-class reporter, ideally NCTJ qualified, with a passion for engaging journalism and a keen interest in religious affairs.

Whether it's a papal visit to Colombia, the debate about immigration in the wake of the Brexit vote, or the closure of a Catholic college in London, The Tablet's readers rely on our online and print platforms to bring them all the news from the Catholic world that matters.

We need a fast, accurate reporter to work full time across The Tablet's print and online platforms. Responsibilities include originating and preparing stories and pictures for the journal's website and promoting them on social media.

This post is offered initially as a six-month maternity leave cover with the potential for an extension.

Please send your CV and a covering letter setting out why you think you are right for the role to: thetablet@thetablet.co.uk and elenacurtiemail@gmail.com

The Tablet's offices are in Hammersmith, west London.

The closing date for applications is Friday 20 January 2017.
