RECRUITMENT

AMPLEFORTH
ABBEY TRUST

Appointment of Lay Trustees

The Ampleforth Abbey Trust is the governing body that oversees the 2,200-acre estate in North Yorkshire which is home to the largest Benedictine monastic community in Britain. Ampleforth Abbey is a place of inspiration and beauty and this is an exciting opportunity to join the Trust at an exceptional and crucial stage of its history.

Candidates must be able to demonstrate a high level of personal accomplishment alongside experience of successfully fulfilling leadership roles at the very highest levels in organisations of considerable scale and complexity, and/or through public and community service and wider representation. Following a skills audit of current members, the following professional experience/backgrounds have been identified as priorities for recruitment: Health/safeguarding, Accountancy/audit/strategic financial management, Estates/land and property expertise/commercial optimisation of Estates, Organisational development/human resources/change management. Although it is not necessary for Lay Trustees to be Roman Catholic, we do expect them to identify strongly and align with the values of the Trust.

The Board will hold approximately six business meetings each year in Ampleforth and at least one joint meeting with its sister trust the St Laurence Education Trust. In accordance with Roman Catholic Church requirements, the Board will also have a Safeguarding Commission reporting to it, the main function of which will be to have oversight of safeguarding matters in the monastery. The role is non-remunerated, although reasonable out-of-pocket expenses are paid in line with the Trust's policy on expenses.

Completed applications should be uploaded at <https://candidates.perrettlaver.com/vacancies/> quoting reference 4149. All telephone enquiries, in the first instance, should be directed to +44 (0) 20 7340 6200.
