Aid to the Church in Need

North West Manager

Based: Lancaster

Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) supports the Catholic Church in over 140 countries across the world where there is oppression, persecution or pastoral need.

We are seeking an experienced North West Manager to raise funds and awareness for our international projects. Heading up the NW team of office-based staff and the team of Area Secretaries (parish speakers), and through a wide range of fundraising and marketing techniques, the NW Manager will work to increase the significance of the North West's contribution as a proportion of overall UK income and build a solid base of parish-based volunteers.

This role will continue to develop and implement a fundraising development strategy in conjunction with the Community Outreach Manager, focusing significantly on parish development, major donors, regionally significant sources of support and youth development, and will work to agreed fundraising and non-fundraising targets.

If you offer a strong track record of major donor fundraising, community and youth development, with a demonstrable track record of meeting financial and other targets, and if you have excellent contacts and presence within the Catholic community in the North West in order to continue to develop ACN as a significant Catholic charity presence, we would be very keen to hear from you.
