inspire webinar

Join the team from inspire – The Tablet's newest international magazine for young Catholics – for a webinar around the theme of:

What the synod means for young Catholics

Anna Rowlands, St Hilda Professor of Catholic Social Thought & Practice in the Department of Theology and Religion at Durham University will be talking to Wyatt Olivas, a 19 year old student at the University of Wyoming and the youngest member of the recent synod in Rome and Brenda Noriega, a Young Adults Ministry Coordinator for the Diocese of San Bernardino about how the synod will impact the lives and faiths of young Catholics around the world.

Thursday 25 January 2024, 6.00pm – 7.00pm GMT

HEAD OF FAITH IN ACTION

Could you inspire the Catholic community to put its faith into action?

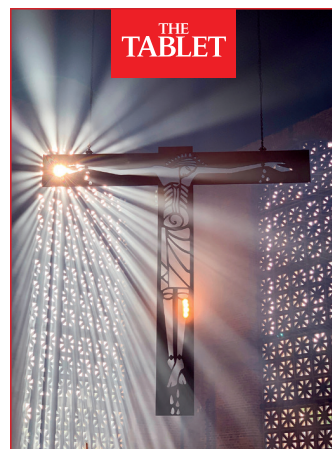

Pact, the Prison Advice & Care Trust, seeks a 'Head of Faith in Action' to engage and inspire Catholic people and other Christians to offer the hope of a fresh start to people caught up in the criminal justice system.

Working with the charity's CEO, trustees and Heads of Fundraising & Communications, and with our Services and Volunteering managers, and drawing on the encouragement and support of our Bishops, you will mobilise support from individuals, parishes, dioceses, and Catholic organisations, to increase charitable giving, volunteering, social action & advocacy.

Homebased with frequent national travel.

Salary: £46,225 per annum. Closing date: 7 February 2024

A full job description, person specification and application form can be found at www.prisonadvice.org.uk/current-vacancies

'I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' Matthew 25:36
