DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR (CATHOLIC PHILANTHROPY) FULL/PART-TIME

Advertisement

The Von Hügel Institute for Critical Catholic Inquiry (VHI), based at St Edmund's College in the University of Cambridge invites applications for the position of Development Director. The VHI has embarked on a major fundraising campaign and seeks a dynamic, and innovative staff-member to lead and coordinate this operation along with the VHI Director, VHI development collaborators and the College's Master and Development Office to ensure a long and sustainable future for this unique research institute. You will be bright, energetic, enterprising, driven, flexible, and an excellent communicator. Duties will include benefactor research and approaches, development management and administration, donor stewardship, and grant application writing. This is a fantastic opportunity in a unique institution. This is a full or part-time position: we are happy to consider applications from candidates who would prefer a part-time appointment (minimum 0.5 FTE, to be worked flexibly). Salary will be commensurate with experience up to a level of £55,000 pro rata, along with an attractive benefits package.

Further particulars about this position and information about the VHI may be found on our website: www.vhi.st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk

Applications, in the form of a covering letter and CV, along with the names of two referees, and a completed College application form should be sent to vhi-director@st-edmunds.cam.ac.uk by 5 pm on Monday 18 January 2021. Interviews will be held in January. It is hoped that the successful candidate will be in post in February 2021 or as soon as possible thereafter.

New Hall School

Catholic independent HMC boarding & day school (3-18) for 1,250 students

Girls' Division (11-16) & Boys' Division (11-16) & Co-ed Sixth Form (16-18)
The Avenue, Boreham, Chelmsford, CM3 3HS

New Hall School requires, from September 2021:

Head of Preparatory Division

• Pay range: £62,705-£72,651pa • generous staff fee remission • possibility of renting School accommodation • excellent training provision

A well-qualified, inspirational and experienced leader, is required to join the Senior Leadership & Management Team, to lead the educational provision for children aged 7-11 (Years 3-6). New Hall operates a diamond model educational structure, with a mixture of single-sex and co-educational teaching. Previously awarded overall TES School of the Year, New Hall is one of the largest and most successful Independent Schools in the UK. The School has six Divisions: Nursery, Pre-Prep, Preparatory, Girls, Boys and Sixth Form. The Preparatory Divisions have recently expanded to three-form entry. Applications are invited from primary and secondary trained candidates.

Reporting to the Principal, the successful candidate will have excellent leadership and management skills and a demonstrable commitment to independent education. Contribution to the co-curricular life of the School is expected. New Hall has outstanding provision in sport, music and the performing and creative arts. This is a superb professional opportunity to join a large and strong senior team in a vibrant and forward-thinking school, with 1,500 students and around 400 employees.

All candidates will be fully supportive of the School's Catholic ethos, working closely with the Chaplaincy Team and the resident Priest Chaplain. Applications from practising Catholics are particularly welcome. The successful candidate will be expected to give leadership in spiritual and faith development and to be responsible for nurturing and developing the distinctive Catholic life of the School.

New Hall is committed to increasing representation of Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic backgrounds among staff across all roles and at all levels, to reflect our diverse student population. The School's Equal Opportunities Policy is available on the School's website.
